Summary of Consultations Undertaken

A public consultation exercise was undertaken on the draft appraisal which started on 27th November 2006 and concluded on 31st January 2007. This consisted of the following:

- A copy of the Draft Character Assessment, Sustainability Appraisal Report and boundary assessment report were made available for inspection at Morden Library (the nearest library to the site) between 27th November 2006 and 31st January 2007 (9½ weeks).

- A downloadable PDF version of the Draft Character Assessment, Sustainability Appraisal Report and boundary assessment report were placed on the Council’s website on 27th November 2006 with a deadline for comments of 31st January 2007 (9½ weeks).

- A notice was placed in the Local Guardian newspaper in the 23rd November edition, advertising the availability of the Draft Character Assessment documents, for public comment (at the Council offices, Morden Library and the Council’s website) with a deadline for comments of 8th January (6 weeks). A copy of the notice can be found at Annex 1.

- Letters were sent out in the week beginning 20th November to properties within the Conservation Area as currently defined (map DLU/2254 shows which properties were consulted). This letter specified a deadline for comments of 8th January (6 weeks). These letters advised where copies of the Draft Character Assessment documents could be viewed, and where copies could be obtained.

- Letters and copies of the Draft Character Assessment, Sustainability Appraisal Report and boundary assessment report were sent out in the week beginning 20th November to local organisations and groups deemed likely to have an interest in the Conservation Area (see Annex 3) with a deadline of 8th January (6 weeks).

- Letters and copies of the Draft Character Assessment, Sustainability Appraisal Report and boundary assessment report were sent out in the week beginning 20th November to relevant Ward Councillors deemed likely to have an interest in the Conservation Area (see Annex 4) with a deadline of 8th January (6 weeks).

An officer of the Council also attended a meeting of local residents, called by the Haig Homes Residents Assn on 5th Dec 2006. The character assessment, and particularly the suggested boundary alterations were discussed at that meeting.

Note 1.
- The character of the area has not changed since it was first designated as a Conservation Area.
- The houses in the RM Court are of the same age and quality as those at Trenchard Court (which is to remain within the CA).
- The name has historic value (commemorating the first VC awarded to an airman).
- More streets/places should be named after fallen heroes. RM Court is one of the few such places.
- The view from the Court over the playing field is open and well maintained, it adds to the character of the place, giving a feeling of space as a contrast to the city.
- The Court and the playing field go hand-in-hand. The public come here and appreciate peace and wildlife.
• The space, setting and tranquillity of the area is enjoyed by the local community, and is unseen elsewhere in Merton (in a built up area).

• The Residents Assn for the Haig Homes Estate is in the process of seeking funding to re-landscape the playing field, and is committed to preserving and enhancing the CA.

• No warning had been given for the proposal (to delete areas from the CA), and it is seen as a waste of tax-payer’s money if there are no benefits to the public. If the Council or other bodies have plans for this area, then they should be made known now.

• Would the exclusion of this area from the CA mean that in 20 years time, when people’s views change, that we would eradicate Conservation Areas.

Note 2.

• The Association disagrees with the conclusions set out in the Boundary Assessment report which lead to the conclusion to leave the playing fields out of the Conservation Area *. The tree belt with runs around the edges of the Park and playing fields delineate the park as a whole. The old changing rooms will have to go, or have gone already. The overall park has integrity as a single unit.

* Note: The conclusion of the Boundary Assessment report on the playing fields was that: “This open area forms approximately half of a large open space (Morden Park), the other half already being included within the boundaries of the Conservation Area. The playing fields half has no buildings of any architectural interest at all, and its historical and landscape interest is considered to be less than that of the Morden Park area currently within the Conservation Area. The landscape quality of the playing fields has suffered as a result of laying out sports pitches, tennis courts etc., the construction of very unattractive sports changing rooms. Some groups of mature trees have been kept within this area, which does benefit the landscape. However considered overall this part of the open space is not considered to warrant Conservation Area status.”

Note 3.

The justification for this view is given as:

• The Playing Fields and the public park were historically a single entity (Morden Park). The playing fields retain their park-like character of open vistas bounded by belts of trees.

• The Playing Fields are likely to be the subject of redevelopment proposals as the Council looks for a new user. The MOL designation of the site gives some control over development, but a CA designation would provide an additional check on the design of any such development.

Note 4.

The justification for this view is given as:

• It would be wonderful to see the playing fields developed thoughtfully for the community and in harmony with the character of Morden Park.

• Concern that without CA status the playing fields might be developed in piecemeal fashion.

• Disagree with the statement made in the Boundary Assessment that the playing fields offer little of interest, and the implication that it is a boring piece of land.

www.merton.gov.uk
- The playing fields have sweeping views of natural beauty which can be seen from 3 specific vantage points, and these link the playing fields to Morden Park.
- Many residents in Hillcross Avenue enjoy fine views from their gardens, especially in the winter when the trees are bare.
- The mature trees which surround the playing fields must be worth protecting, as must the associated wildlife.

REGULATIONS 2004
CONSULTATIONS ON DRAFT CHARACTER
ASSESSMENT FOR THE UPPER MORDEN
CONSERVATION AREA.

The London Borough of Merton's Design and Conservation Team has prepared a draft Character Assessment for the Upper Morden Conservation Area, and is seeking your views on it.

The purpose of Conservation Area Character Assessments is to justify the Conservation Area designation, and to define the features of interest that give it its special character. Assessments are also used to define any features which detract from the character of the area.

The Assessment for the Conservation Area also proposes some changes to the boundary of the Conservation Area. It also includes some proposals which are aimed at either protecting the special character of the area (where it is seen to be under some threat), or enhancing the character of the area (where there are opportunities to do so).

Copies of the draft Assessment documents are available at Morden Library.
The documents can also be viewed on the Council's website (www.merton.gov.uk). These documents will be available for viewing from 27th November.

Please send any correspondence regarding the draft Assessment by letter or by e-mail to: Phil Ryder, Design and Conservation Team, Environment and Regeneration Dept., Merton Civic Centre, London Rd, Morden, SM4 5DX, or to phil.ryder@merton.gov.uk.

Comments should be received by 8th January 2007 at the latest.
