Decision

Having considered the officer's recommendations and representations to the statutory consultation, I agree to the recommendations to introduce the proposed EV bay and the double yellow lines. I also agree to undertaking of a statutory consultation for the introduction of a car club bay and cycle hire parking bay.

Reason for decision

The proposed measures will complement the public realm enhancements; will ensure access at all times; will facilitate loading and unloading; will promote the use of active travel.

Alternative options considered and why rejected

I have considered the alternatives as set out in the report and I am satisfied that officer recommendations are the most appropriate course of action.
