Decision

Having considered the officer's recommendations and representations to the statutory consultation, I agree to the recommendations to proceed with the implementation of phase 1.
I have also considered feedback received to the informal consultation for phase 2 and agree to proceed with the statutory consultation.

Reason for decision

The proposed measures will create a better and safer road environment for pedestrians and cyclists and encourage active travel.

Alternative options considered and why rejected

I have considered the alternatives as set out in the report and I am satisfied that officer recommendations are the most appropriate course of action.
